TIPS FOR SMALL BUSINESSES

- Government and Public Agencies purchase a wide variety of goods and services to include: construction, commodities, supplies, maintenance, professional services, and more.
- Refer to the Procurement Thresholds table on the other side for agencies' purchasing card maximums and Internet posting thresholds. Smaller purchases are often accomplished at the desk-staff level and may not be advertised.
- Market, Market, Market!
 - Attend pre-bid meetings and events sponsored by each agency.
 - Periodically update your company profile.
 - Regularly search agency websites for business opportunities.
 - Build relationships with the agencies' procurement staff and/or small business specialist – most websites have an employee directory.
