Debbie Manning Appointed to El Dorado Hills Fire Board of Directors (EDH County Water)

Strengthening Ties Between the Fire Department and the Business Community

El Dorado Hills, CA – January 16, 2025 – The El Dorado Hills Fire Board of Directors proudly announces the appointment of Debbie Manning, President and CEO of the El Dorado Hills Chamber of Commerce, filling the vacancy created by the passing of Supervisor John Hidahl. Manning’s appointment marks an exciting step toward fostering a closer collaboration between the local business community and the fire district.

As a long-time advocate for El Dorado Hills, Manning brings decades of experience in business leadership, community engagement, and strategic planning. Her dual roles as President and CEO of the Chamber and now as a Fire Board Director are expected to strengthen partnerships, enhance communication, and drive innovative solutions to benefit residents and businesses alike.

“I am honored to join the El Dorado Hills Fire Board and look forward to contributing to the safety and well-being of our community,” said Manning. “This role provides an opportunity to bridge the gap between our local businesses and our fire department, ensuring we work together for a more resilient and thriving El Dorado Hills.”

“We are thrilled to welcome Debbie Manning to the Fire Board,” said Interim Fire Chief Michael Lilienthal. “Her expertise and deep connections within the business community will be invaluable as we continue to expand our presence in the community but enhance our relationships with our valued businesses throughout El Dorado Hills.”

“On behalf of the Board of Directors and our Chamber, we are pleased that Debbie, our President & CEO, has been appointed as a Director on the Fire Board. We are confident that she will bring a wealth of experience in leadership and collaboration, further enhancing the effectiveness of the Fire Board in ensuring the safety and well-being of our community,” Jenna Hoyt, Chairman of the Board said.

Manning’s election highlights the importance of collaboration between businesses and public safety in addressing the diverse needs of a growing community that is both business-friendly and resilient. As a director, she will work toward innovative strategies for public safety, economic prosperity, and a stronger future for El Dorado Hills.
